Local Stony Point Author Featured in "50 Great Writers You Should Be Reading"

Stony Point, NY, writer Chelle Cordero, author of romantic suspense, thriller and mystery novels, is one of the first selected authors for "50 Great Writers You Should Be Reading" produced by The Authors Show (Danielle Hampson and Don McCauley)..

Chelle has eight novels published by Vanilla Heart Publishing: Bartlett's Rule, His Lucky Charm, Within the Law, Courage of the Heart, Final Sin, Hostage Heart, A Chance of Riches, and Common Bond: Tangled Hearts. She has short stories in three Vanilla Heart anthologies: With Arms Wide Open, Nature's Gifts, and Passionate Hearts; and in Forever Friends from Mandiman Press. Chelle Cordero is a freelance writer with numerous articles in regional and national newspapers and magazines. Cordero also authors a weekly online writing course Living, Breathing, Writing available by subscription through Amazon Kindle Blogs.

In her spare time, Chelle likes to spend as much family time as possible with her husband and their grown children. The entire family was featured in the premier issue of Rockland Magazine from Gannett for their community volunteerism in their local ambulance corps. Chelle is a NYS Emergency Medical Technician and is currently serves as the President of the Stony Point Ambulance Corps.

Chelle is available for interviews, please contact her at ChelleCordero@gmail.com or through (845) 786-3550. Her website is <http://ChelleCordero.com>
